Two Men Pray

"Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector" (Luke 18:10).

According to the gospel accounts the Pharisees, who were the strictest sect of the Hebrew religion (Acts 26:5), were notorious for being hypocrites (Matt. 23). Evidence of this is seen in their self-righteous posture. "The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, 'God, I thank You that I am not like other men — extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I possess'" (Lk. 18:11-12).

On the other hand the tax collector, whose profession was often branded because of dishonesty, "standing afar off, would not so much as raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner!' (verse 13).

Jesus gave approval of the tax collector because he humbled Himself before God - something the Pharisee would not do. Which man best describes you?

—Walter M. Olsen—

Walter M. Olsen, 92, formerly of Columbus, Ohio, peacefully left his worldly life to spend eternity with Jesus Christ on February 27, 2024 at Magnolia Terrace in Galion, Ohio, surrounded by his daughters, Wendy and Linda, and the loving supportive staff of Magnolia Terrace and Gentiva Hospice.

He was born on May 29, 1931 in Brooklyn, New York, to the late Walter F. and Johanna (Mikulak) Olsen.

On March 14, 1953 he married his high school sweetheart and love of his life, Mary Kommeyer and shared almost 29 years together.

Left to honor his memory are his five children and their spouses: Wendy and Don Jagger of Mt. Gilead, Ohio, Gary and Rena Olsen of League City, Texas, Linda and Jim Hodge of Hilliard, Ohio, Robert and Cynthia Olsen of Woodinville, Washington, Richard and Daisy Olsen of Winter Springs, Florida. Walter had 8 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren. He is also survived by his dear cousins Peggy and Chris of New York.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, Mary, an infant brother, and multiple aunts and uncles.

Walter served his country by joining the Army and was transferred to Fort Dix, New Jersey, where he served by training soldiers in weaponry. He completed Officer's Training School in Fort Benning, Georgia. Walter served in the Army Reserves for 15 years and obtained the rank of Captain. He was honorably discharged.

Walter was a Scout Master with the Boy Scouts and was proud to see his three sons rise to the rank of Eagle Scout. He loved camping, model trains and working with his hands. He received many accolades, including recognition from Honor Flight Columbus with a trip to Washington DC, October 20, 2018. He was very humbled by the experience, but it was the trip of a lifetime.

A private family celebration was held at Snyder Funeral Home in Mount Gilead, Ohio, with interment in St. Joseph's Cemetery in Lockbourne, Ohio. Walter was buried with military honors.

The family wishes to extend their sincere appreciation to the staff of Magnolia Terrace in Galion who provided Walter and his family with the utmost of care and respect. Their outpouring of love will never be forgotten. A special thank you to Liz and Melissa and Abby who went above and beyond. The family would also like to thank the staff of Gentiva Hospice for their care and support.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be sent in Walter's memory to Wounded Warrior Project or Tunnel to Towers as both of them were dear to his heart.

Snyder Funeral Homes of Mount Gilead are honored to have been chosen to serve Walter's family. Special memories or condolences may be shared by visiting www.SnyderFuneralHomes.com.

—Karen Irene (Dronebarger) Leavitt—

Karen Irene (Dronebarger) Leavitt, age 77, of Fulton, passed away at her home Friday afternoon, March 8, 2024.

On April 28, 1946, Karen was born in Norfolk, Virginia, a daughter of the late Walter Leroy Dronebarger Sr. and the late Geraldine Helen (Ward) Dronebarger. She completed her GED and then went on to receive an Associate's from Norfolk Community College to be a Certified Public Accountant.

At the age of 13, Karen met a young man, Jerry L. "Jerry AKA Whiskers" Leavitt. They began dating and on October 15, 1962 they were married at the Little White Chapel in Doylestown, OH. They were best friends and husband and wife for 57 years before he preceded her in death on November 11, 2019.

Karen worked many jobs over the years, but she was most known for her 28 years at the Disciple Shop thrift store in Fulton. She enjoyed meeting people there and helping families at Christmas.

Karen enjoyed crafting of all kinds: sewing, crochet and knitting particularly. She planted vegetable and flower gardens every year and loved to go deer hunting. She spent a lot of time reading books, especially those by Stephen King.

Family was the thing that Karen cherished most, having special bonds with her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She loved taking family vacations to the Outer Banks. She had to visit Dirty Dick's & Pigman's BBQ every time she was there.

Karen will be remembered as a strong woman who had a close relationship with God. She was so caring towards people and animals and always saw the good in everyone. Her love was absolutely unconditional for her family and friends.

Left to cherish Karen's memory are her four children: Lisa Schoonover, Wendy (Richard) Duboe, Tim Leavitt, Rebecca (Keith) Chafin; five grandchildren: Jessica (Dace) Williams, Amanda (Austin Mowers) Schoonover, Holly Duboe, Michaela Chafin, and Samuel (Lexia Wilson) Chafin; 13 great grandchildren: Brock, Brave, Erik, Josue, Annalisa, Preston, Averie, Makayla, Braden, Lilyann, Emersyn, Paisley, Jolene; a great-great grandchild, Roman Emery Mowers; three siblings: Joyce Carr, David Dronebarger, Kala (Stan) Webel; sister-in-law, Patrice Dronebarger; Jay Schoonover, the father of Jessica and Amanda; numerous nieces and nephews; and her canine companions, Hunnybun and Stretch.

In addition to her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by a brother, Walter "Lee" Dronebarger Jr.; brother-in-law, Pete Carr; and sister-in-law, June Dronebarger.

Karen's family will greet friends from 2 - 4 p.m. on Saturday, March 16, 2024 at the Snyder Funeral Homes, Mount Gilead Chapel, 67 N. Main St., Mount Gilead. Services to honor and celebrate her life will begin there at 4:00 p.m. with Chaplain Wil Verhoff officiating. The Celebration of Life will continue afterwards at 1210 Township Road 208, Marengo, OH 43334. Friends are welcome to join the family for food and fellowship.

In lieu of flowers, Karen's family asks memorial contributions be made to the Morrow County Dog Shelter or the Humane Society of Morrow County.

Snyder Funeral Homes of Mount Gilead are honored to have been chosen to serve Karen's family. Special memories or condolences may be shared by visiting www.SnyderFuneralHomes.com.

—Marian Kay Turner—

December 24, 1953 - February 7, 2024

Marian Kay Turner, age 70 of Marion, OH passed away February 7, 2024, at home. She was born December 24, 1953, to the late William J. Turner and Shirley Kirkpatrick in Mt. Gilead, OH. Marian was raised by her father and stepmother Frances Lane.

Marian is survived by daughter Megan (Zachary) Brooks of Westerville, 2 grandchildren, and brothers: Paul Kemp, Brian Kemp, Doug Kemp and Steve Kemp. She was preceded in death by her parents, stepmother, and brother Terry Turner.

Marian earned her Associate Degree and became an LPN. She enjoyed her career as a nurse as well as crocheting.

Memorial contributions can be made to Hospice of Morrow County in Mt. Gilead, OH.

—Charles F. "Chuck" Lamborn—

Charles F. "Chuck" Lamborn, age 100, of Mount Gilead, passed away Monday morning, March 4, 2024, at JAG Healthcare Galion Pointe.

On February 18, 1924, Chuck was born in Columbus, Ohio, a son of the late Raymond E. and Helen (Morningstar) Lamborn. He graduated from North High School in the Class of 1942. Chuck enlisted in the U.S. Army on Christmas day in 1942. He proudly served his country during WWII and received his honorable discharge in December 1945. He then furthered his education by receiving his Bachelor's in Agricultural Engineering from The Ohio State University in 1950.

While attending a PTA meeting, Chuck met a young woman who turned out to be the love of his life, Iris Rosetta Jackson. On July 15, 1951 they were married at the Bryn Zion Baptist Church in Mount Gilead and shared over 60 wonderful years together before she preceded him in death on April 6, 2012.

For many years, Chuck worked within the Department of Agriculture at the state and federal level. He did many projects focused on soil conservation and watershed protection. He retired in 1980.

A man who always loved the Lord, Chuck was a member of Christ Covenant Church in Galion. He had a heart for helping and volunteering in many organizations including: Morrow County Historical Society, Meals on Wheels, Kiwanis Club of Morrow County, Morrow County Zoning Committee and assisting as a TWIG at the Morrow County Hospital.

Chuck enjoyed traveling and being outdoors camping with his wife and family. He visited numerous state and national parks, with Maine being one of his favorite places to be. He also liked muskie fishing in Michigan, watching deer in his back yard and gardening. His strawberry patch was "a thing of beauty."

Chuck was good with his hands and enjoyed wood-working and countless fix-it projects around the home or churches he attended over the years. He always looked forward to the crossword puzzles and comics in the Sunday paper. He also liked Sudoku, other word puzzles and even loved playing Super Mario Brothers on the Nintendo, which drove his wife crazy. He had a special bond with his cat, Trouble.

Chuck will be remembered as a man who liked to solve problems. The engineer inside him always came out. He was often quiet, ornery at times, had a wonderful, dry sense of humor and normally a smile on his face. He loved God, his family and animals.

Left to cherish Chuck's memory are his five children: Charles C. Lamborn of San Jose, CA, Mark J. (Kae) Lamborn of Bartlesville, OK, Scott R. Lamborn of Mount Gilead, Tim A. (Beth) Lamborn of Gulf Breeze, FL, Sara A. (Larry) Palmer of Galion; and numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren.

In addition to his wife and parents, he was preceded in death by daughter-in-law, Dessie L. Lamborn; infant brother, Robert Lamborn; sister, Martha Wilson; sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Louise and Loren Coldwell.

Chuck's family will greet friends from 10 a.m. - 12 p.m. on Saturday, March 9, 2024 at the Christ Covenant Church, 130 E. Walnut St., Galion, OH 44833. Services to honor and celebrate his life will begin there at 12 p.m. with Pastor Heather McLeod officiating. Burial with military honors will follow in Bryn Zion Cemetery.

Memorial contributions in Chuck's name may be made to the Morrow County Historical Society or Christ Covenant Church.

Snyder Funeral Homes of Mount Gilead are honored to have been chosen to serve Chuck's family. Special memories or condolences may be shared by visiting www.SnyderFuneralHomes.com.
