Mary Elizabeth Baxter

Mary Elizabeth Baxter, age 46, of Coshocton, passed away Friday, March 15, 2024 at Coshocton Regional Medical Center.

On December 3, 1977, Mary was born in Albuquerque, New Mexico, a daughter of Sondra Lee (Walker) Granados. She graduated from Manzano High School in the Class of 2000.

Mary enjoyed spending her days at RHDD in Coshocton, working and being with her friends. She was always up for a road trip to anywhere, as long as a stop was made to get ice cream. Her favorite places to visit were Amish country and vacations to Put-in-Bay.

Mary spent a great deal of time listening to music. All genres from old rock to country, gospel, Jelly Roll, K-pop, and everything in between. When it came down to it, Toby Keith was her man though.

Mary was obsessed with anything Disney or Nickelodeon and especially enjoyed Beauty and the Beast, Blue's Clues and Dora the Explorer. She also liked watching horror movies with Michael Myers and thoroughly enjoyed trying to scare people. Holidays were a fun time for Mary, whether it was going to see lights at Christmas, or dressing up for Halloween. Dressing up never varied though, she had to be a witch every year.

Mary was in charge wherever she was. She was spunky, feisty, and could be quite stubborn at times, but in reality, that is what helped her get through a lot in her life. She loved hard and gave her whole heart. Her huge smile would light up any room like a ray of sunshine. Mary was beautiful, pure and an angel to so many who knew her.

Left to cherish Mary's memory are her mother, Sondra Granados of Albuquerque, NM; three siblings: Tabitha Smith of Mount Vernon, Samuel Bruce Rhoads and spouse Calvin Rhoads Bruce of Belen, NM, Steven Smith of Mount Vernon; numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins; and all of the beloved staff of DOY from many counties that assisted with her care and became family.
