"Lord, I Have Sinned, But I Have Several Excellent Excuses"

I don't know how much you read, but you'll probably find that books are somewhat like sermons (some are easy to read, while others are long and tedious). A good example of the latter is Leo Tolstoy's book, "War and Peace." In this massive volume, there is a major character named Pierre. At one point Pierre was forced to confront himself and his actions, and to do some serious self-examination. So he prayed to God and said, "Yes Lord, I have sinned, but I have several excellent excuses."

Well, most of us can really relate to Pierre on this: we all sin, but we have several excellent excuses. It's so easy to excuse our behavior ("God made us this way," or "It's the society in which we live," or "It's the dysfunctional family in which we were brought up," etc.). Adam got it all started way back there in the Garden of Eden because when he was confronted, he simply replied, "The woman you put here with me, she gave me some fruit from the tree and I ate it" (Gen. 3:8). Adam excused his actions by not just blaming the woman, but in reality, by blaming God. "The woman YOU put here with me..." It sort of sounds like, "Lord, if YOU hadn't given me this woman (or this kind of woman) none of this ever would have happened."

The expression, "I have sinned," is found 19 times in the Bible. Pharaoh (who had enslaved the descendants of Jacob) said it twice during the difficult days of the plagues that befell his nation (Exod. 9:27; 10:16). Saul, the first king of Israel, said it three times (1 Sam. 15:24, 30; 26:21). His successor, King David (of whom God said, "He is a man after My own heart") said it five times - more than anyone else in the Bible (2 Sam. 12:13; 19:20; 24:10, 17; 1 Chron. 21:8)! You might be thinking, "How could a man that goes around sinning all the time be a man after God's own heart?" Well David possessed a humble and repentant heart. He said in Psalm 51:3, "I acknowledge my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me." He didn't deny his sin. Unlike Saul, he didn't offer several excellent excuses. He didn't blame it on someone else or try to justify it. He simply admitted it, agonized over it, repented of it, and sought God's forgiveness.

One danger of making an alibi for sin is that it keeps us from seeing ourselves the way we really are. If we are convinced that we're doing nothing wrong (when in reality we are), we'll never take that "wrong-doing" before God, repent of it, and ask His forgiveness. The truth is excuse-making blinds us to reality. While we are casually finding ways to excuse our sins, we forget that God sees and knows everything (Heb. 4:13).

In Luke 14:16-24 Jesus tells of a man who invited many people to a great banquet. They all accepted the invitation, but when the day arrived and they were reminded of their commitment, they all, with one accord, began to make excuses. "I bought a piece of land..." "I've bought five yoke of oxen..." "I've married a wife..." The Lord is simply showing us how foolish and nonsensical our feeble excuses are to Him. God is not interested in hearing our excuses but in forgiving our sins. Yet when we make excuses for our sins and won't face up to our actions, He cannot forgive. Friends, always remember this: we don't need a scapegoat, we need a Savior!

Janet F. (Arnett) Beck

April 4, 1942 - September 10, 2022

Our Heavenly Father called for Janet Beck to rest in His care on Sept 10, 2022, at Fort Myers Beach, Florida. She had spent her summer months in Ohio with her sister and unexpectedly became ill after returning home to Florida.

Janet was born in Magoffin County, Kentucky on April 4, 1942 to Roy W. and Dorothy J. Arnett. The Arnett family moved to Marion, Ohio after her father finished his Naval military service. She continued to make Marion her home for many years.

On January 26 1976, she married the love of her life, Richard E. Beck of Mount Gilead, Ohio. Together they owned/operated Becks Auto Wrecking until they retired in 2005 to enjoy life. For many years, they had traveled to Florida in the winter and in 2007, they chose to make Florida their permanent home.

Janet was an enthusiastic Buckeye Fan and never missed an Ohio State game. She would playfully challenge anyone who did not agree that OSU was the best team in the land. Camping and traveling adventures filled her years but her family was her priority and her joy of life. While in Ohio, Janet enjoyed watching her grandchildren play baseball and spending precious time with her family and lifelong friends.

Janet was an active member of The Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion for many years, and a lifetime member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. She never knew a stranger and made new friends from all over the country. Her laughter was contagious and she enjoyed her life to the fullest.

She was preceded in death by both her parents, her brother Charles Arnett, infant son, Richard E. Beck Jr., son Randy Beck, infant grandchild Melody Brown, nieces Brandi Grosh and Lisa (Arnett) Monnette, and a great-nephew, Cody Wells.

Janet will be forever be missed by her husband Richard, her daughters Lori K Beck, Debra (Beck) Brown, her sister Pamela Lupica, her grandchildren Justin (Danielle) Beck and Joshua (Shania) Beck, Michelle and Kristy Brown, her niece Tami (Joe) McCoy, her nephew Robert (Kim) Arnett, great-grandchildren Saleen, Randi, Carolina, Roman, daughter in law Gayle Beck, great-nephew Braxton Wells, along with many lifelong friends.

A memorial will be planned and announced in the spring to celebrate the life and love of Janet Beck. For those wishing to send cards of condolences, Richard Beck, 803 Commanche Trail, Fort Myers Beach, Fla. 33931.
