Sharon Jeanne Whipple

Sharon Jeanne Whipple, age 80, of Caledonia, died unexpectedly on Saturday, December 9, 2023, at Marion General Hospital following a brief illness.

On December 29, 1942, Sharon was born at Galion City Hospital. She was the oldest of two children of the late Raymond Norman and Genevieve Naomi (Meckley) Campbell. She grew up on her family farm in Edison. She graduated from Edison High School in the class of 1960.

Sharon furthered her education at Olivet Nazarene College in Kankakee, Illinois, where she earned a Bachelors degree in Education. While there, she began a relationship with classmate, Edwin Lloyd Whipple. She actually knew of Edwin from attending sermons in Mount Gilead by Edwin's father, Rev. Edwin E. Whipple. Shortly after graduation, Sharon and Edwin were married on June 13, 1964. Together they shared 42 years of marriage, and lovingly raised two sons: Kevin and Todd. They lived in Marion and then Washington Court House. Edwin preceded her in death on July 24, 2006. In 2009, Sharon moved to Caledonia to be near her grandsons.

Throughout her career, Sharon was a school teacher in Illinois and Ohio. She was primarily a long-term substitute teacher to elementary and middle school students in Marion and Washington Court House.

Sharon was a devout Christian, and attended services when she was able at Dayspring Wesleyan Church in Marion. Due to her health, she often watched services on television. She was devoted to reading her Bible. She was an avid reader of mysteries. She expressed her creativity through drawing and writing. She enjoyed writing fictional stories about living life on the farm, reconnecting with the memories of her childhood. She often reminisced with her children and grandchildren about her life of the farm. She enjoyed helping with all of the animals, and talked fondly about raising her own chickens. She also loved collecting her Mary's Moo Moos.

Having a heart of gold, Sharon cared deeply and always wanted to help her family, especially her children and grandchildren however she could. She gave generously of her time and means. She genuinely loved her grandchildren and cherished every moment spent with them.

Left to cherish her memory are her two sons: Kevin (Bambi) Whipple of Mount Gilead, OH; Todd (Michelle) Whipple of Sabina, OH; two grandsons: Austin and Logan Whipple; three step-grandchildren: Antonia (Max Frasier) French, Dominick (Michelle) French, and Aiden French; four step-great-grandchildren: Jeremy, Carlie, Maxwell, and Brielle; a brother, David R. (Sheryl) Campbell of Edison; and a nephew, Daniel.

Graveside services will be held at 1 pm on Thursday, December 14, 2023, at the Blendon Central Cemetery, 6330 S Hempstead Rd, Westerville, with Pastor Chuck Osborne officiating. Per Sharon's request, private family services will be held at Snyder Funeral Homes in Mount Gilead prior to the graveside services.

Memorial contributions may be made to Dayspring Wesleyan Church (<https://www.dayspringwesleyan.org/give/>) or to a humane society of your choosing.

Snyder Funeral Homes of Mount Gilead are honored to serve Sharon's family and your condolences may be expressed to them by visiting www.Snyder-FuneralHomes.com.

On February 12, 1962, Chuck was born in Delaware, OH, a son of Charles R. Fowler Sr. and the late Sharon Fay (Metzger) Fowler.

Chuck honorably served his country in the United States Army. Shortly after being discharged, he met a young woman, Chris Bailey. Chuck and Chris were married on December 1, 1984 in Galion. They shared the last 39 years together as husband and wife.

For many years, Chuck did stucco work for Reitter Stucco and G III out of Columbus. He then worked as a crane operator for Sims Brothers Recycling in Marion.
