Due to health reasons, Mr. Stegman is selling his beautiful Victorian Tudor Inn and contents at public auction. It has operated as a bed & breakfast and his personal residence. Richard retired after serving as a professor and dean at several universities including Wyoming and Rhode Island. He has always been a civic-minded man and traveled the world collecting antiques. This will be the third and final auction of this outstanding historical home and contents.

Pick Up & Removal: Items can be removed day of auction until 7:00 pm. Pick Up will also be available Sunday January 7, 2:00 pm - 6:00 pm. Again, buyer is responsible for moving items. We will be selling lots inside garage from a large flat-screen tv.

REAL ESTATE: Introducing The Victorian Tudor Inn, an exquisite property located in a prestigious and historical area. This English Tudor home (5,087 sq. ft.) was originally built in 1908 with a later addition, offers a timeless charm and a wealth of desirable features. Nestled on a 98' x 170' corner city lot on 0.382 acres, this stunning residence boasts a captivating stone and stucco exterior that exudes elegance. The mixed-tile and asphalt shingle roof beautifully complements the architectural style, while a small patio deck provides a charming outdoor space to relax and unwind. The property welcomes you with a concrete driveway, leading to an attached 2-car garage for convenient parking. As you approach the grand entrance, you'll be greeted by a professionally landscaped lawn adorned with mature trees and an efficient sprinkler system, adding to the allure of the home's curb appeal. Step inside this remarkable dwelling and be transported to a world of refined craftsmanship and sophisticated design. The front porch roof has recently been replaced, ensuring both style and functionality. Spread across multiple levels, the Victorian Tudor Inn offers an abundance of space with 6 ensuite bedrooms and a total of 8 full baths, providing ample accommodation for residents and guests alike. The presence of 3 stairways adds to the architectural grandeur and ease of movement throughout the home. For additional versatility, the property features 2 living quarters, located in the basement and the 3rd-floor attic. These separate living spaces offer potential for rental income or guest quarters, providing flexibility and value to the discerning homeowner. The heart of this home lies within the thoughtfully designed kitchen, complete with built-in gas stove, double oven, and dishwasher. You'll find a matching granite top trestle table, perfect for casual dining, while the granite countertops, banquette seating, and recessed lights create a welcoming ambiance. The tile floor adds a touch of sophistication, while partial hardwood flooring throughout the house exudes warmth and character. Drawing your gaze upward, the wood-beamed ceilings and pocket doors showcase the craftsmanship and attention to detail found throughout the property. Cozy up on chilly evenings with the warmth of 3 fireplaces, adding both charm and comfort to the living spaces. Modern comforts are seamlessly integrated into this historic home, with central air conditioning ensuring year-round comfort, and a gas boiler providing efficient heating. Additionally, a back-up generator offers peace of mind during power outages. ## News For Older Americans

A Grandparent's Best Friend

(NAPS)—Here's good news for America's approximately 70 million grandparents: A growing problem that has been bugging families since the advent of the digital photo revolution—"Where is the latest photo of my grandchild?"—may have a surprising solution thanks to two enterprising granddads, Silicon Valley alumni.

Vinnie Jones and Boyd Pearce put their heads together and designed a simple, free and user-friendly mobile app that lets families share and re-live at will

A new, free app can help organize your family photos and other visual information on your phone so you can easily see them whenever you like.

their daily experiences, as well as special moments with loved ones even thousands of miles apart. Called My Grandkids, it works with a simple click or two of a button.

Explains Pearce, formerly with IBM, Teradata and Hitachi, "Vinnie and I decided to take what we called the Ph.D approach (Press Here Dummy). We wanted to design an application that solved the photo problem but in a simple, easy way."

Jones, who worked with Pearce at Teradata, said, "My wife and I became swamped with all the photos that started to accumulate digitally. We were creating the digital equivalent of that old shoebox where you used to store your pictures and rummage from time to time to find the one you wanted. Yes, some people took the time to create photo albums but for those who didn't, My Grandkids is a great solution—almost instantaneous albums that you can access at the touch of a button, right there on your mobile."

The app lets you collect all photos taken by or received into your mobile device and display them in a handy reference gallery ready to be stored for easy access in self-designed albums.

These galleries grow automatically as new photos appear ready for storage. Sharing is easy and safe via a private, secure network operating in the Cloud. Add as many contacts as you wish and have them share and exchange photo and video experiences easily—no emails, texts or post required.

My Grandkids can be used not only for family photos but for categorizing your favorite dishes or recipes, wise labels, whatever visual information you want at your fingertips.

The app works on most mobile phone operating systems and tablets and it's available in the Apple Store and as an Android version on Google Play.

It could be a wonderful gift for grandparents who haven't seen enough of their grandkids lately (and what grandparents have?)—even if they give it to themselves.

Doris Meyer

Doris Meyer, age 97, of Edison and formerly of Wooster, passed away peacefully Wednesday morning, December 13, 2023, at DeWolfe Place in Marion.

On October 1, 1926, Doris was born in Wooster, Ohio, a daughter of the late Maynard Omar and Iva Edna (Rowland) Meier. She graduated from Wooster High School and then received her Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from Baldwin Wallace University.

Doris married the love of her life, Leon Joseph "Lee" Meyer on April 15, 1950 in Wooster. They shared 63 wonderful years as husband and wife before he preceded her in death on September 1, 2013.

First and foremost, Doris was a homemaker and stayed busy raising her children. Once they were grown, she worked as a manager at the Rubber and Plastic Employees Federal Credit Union in Wooster, from where she retired. She and Lee owned and operated the Dora-Lee Dariette in Smithville for 23 years. She had a very special coney sauce recipe that she gave to the Edison Quick Stop. Now, everyone in the area can enjoy that recipe on "Wiener Wednesday."

Doris loved traveling. She and Lee belonged to a RV Camping Club and visited just about everywhere they could. They made countless trips from Ohio to Alaska, and all over the US. She participated in the Lake Wales Saddlebag Kitchen Band and also was a member of the Red Hat Society.

Reading may have been Doris's favorite hobby. She recorded a log of every book she ever read and it was a must for her to read the Wooster Daily Record every day. She made amazing pies with her favorite being cherry. Doris enjoyed cards, playing in a Poker club every Friday night, and also played Mexican Train Dominoes.

Doris will be remembered as a sweet woman, but at the same time, a woman that never sugar coated anything. She always told it like it was. She had a great sense of humor and enjoyed telling jokes. Doris was a smart, sharp woman who easily became a friend. She cherished her family and gathering together with them.

Left to cherish Doris's memory are her three children: Roger (Betty) Meyer of Edison, Cindi Crawford of Anchorage, AK, Pixie (Randy) Gard of Wooster; four grandchildren: Renee (Jerrod, known by Doris as "Hunk") Watts of Mount Gilead, Shannon Merriman of Ft. Wayne, IN, Roger Meyer of Edison, Ian "Drew" Browne of New Port Richey, FL; 10 great grandchildren; 11 great-great grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by her sister, Virginia Meier; two half-sisters: Lucille Star, Mildred Myers; two sons-in-law: Stan Smith, George Crawford; and two great grandchildren.

The Meyer family will greet friends from 6 - 8 p.m. on Monday, December 18, 2023, at the Snyder Funeral Homes, Mount Gilead Chapel, 67 N. Main St., Mount Gilead, OH 43338. Burial will take place in Spring 2024 with her husband at Ohio Western Reserve National Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Ohio Hospice Life Care, 1900 Akron Rd., Wooster, OH 44691 or Gentiva Hospice, 1199 Delaware Ave., Marion, OH 43302.

Snyder Funeral Homes of Mount Gilead are honored to have been chosen to serve Doris's family. Special memories or condolences may be shared by visiting www.SnyderFuneralHomes.com.
